A Few Words from Fr Joe

Lent seems like a long time ago, and most of us will have forgotten what sacrifices we made or alms we gave. A letter from Trocaire came in during the week to express thanks for our parish gift of alms. The Director explained that the Lenten campaign had made an enormous difference against the storm of poverty and climate change in Guatemala, giving families there a future. He used the expression "Today your generosity stands beside them." It was a powerful reminder of why we fast, give alms and help those in need as an expression of our faith and in gratitude for our own good fortune.

Another expression of this desire to be of support to those who suffer came in a request from one of my sisters in law to contribute to a fundraiser. She is walking 100km during this month as part of a community initiative to raise money to send medicines to Gaza. She isn't a young woman anymore, but she is determined and generous. So, she puts on her boots, and either alone or with a neighbour or friend, they set out to walk, regardless of the weather, to make this goal, doing a bit every day.

The Mission Sunday appeal is yet another channel of being able to make a difference elsewhere by giving something here today. Read Pope Leo's note in this newsletter, he speaks as a missionary and his words ring true with all the experience we have with Irish men and women who built up the church in so many parts of the world.

A final word from Trocaire, "Thank you Fr Mullan and all your parishioners for your steadfast heart for humanity."

Transcript of the Holy Father Appeal for World Mission Sunday 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
On World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays, united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors. When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities. I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories. This October 19th, as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be 'missionaries of hope among the peoples', let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all!
